ABOUT US

Every day we provide rural and agricultural communities with the support they need to succeed. Whether they are after a healthier herd or flock, increased yields, faster growth rates, a decent return on their land or even just a helping hand. We have the people, products, and services to help our customers get from where they are now to where they want to be. This is why every role at Carr's Billington is hugely important to our shared success and why we welcome talent from across all different backgrounds. From the staff who run our stores and the mechanics who run our workshops, to the office-based support teams and our field-based product and sales managers. Everyone in our business should feel empowered and able to make a positive and valued contribution to what we do.
